

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Diabetes, a chronic, metabolic disorder which adversely affects the body's ability to manufacture or utilize insulin, now afflicts over twelve million Americans; and,

WHEREAS, The cause and prevention of diabetes is still unknown, and the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation International (JDF), an accredited voluntary health adjacency, has as its primary objective the support and funding of research to prevent the complications of diabetes and ultimately find a cure. As of now, it can only be controlled by insulin, diet and exercise; and,

WHEREAS, The Juvenile Diabetes Foundation International is the largest funding source for diabetes research in the world, except for the United States government. In the past year, JDF contributed over $12 million to diabetes research. Organized in 1970 by a group of parents whose children suffered from the disease, JDF now has chapters coast to coast in the United States, Canada and abroad; and,

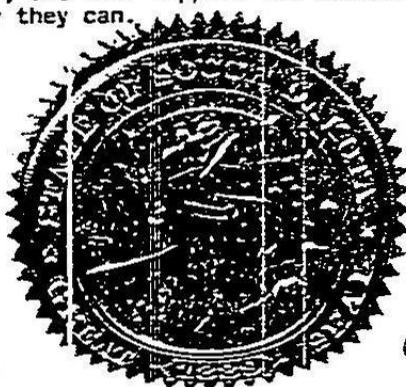

WHEREAS, Largely through the contributions of JDF to research, many new breakthroughs have occurred in the treatment of this disease, which is the third leading cause of death by disease in America (after heart disease and cancer), the leading cause of new blindness, and about 25 percent of new dialysis patients have diabetes-caused kidney failure; and,

WHEREAS, A young citizen of our state is serving as the Midwest Poster Child for Juvenile Diabetes International. Benjamin Brynes, age 10, from Sioux Falls is traveling throughout the Midwest educating people on the urgent need to find a cure and the seriousness of the disease he has;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 20 through 27, 1988, as in South Dakota, which ends in a six-hour telethon Sunday, November 27, in hopes that citizens will appreciate the seriousness and pervasiveness of this chronic illness, and will support the activities of the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation in any way they can.

ATTEST:

Boyd Hazeltime
BOYD HAZELTIME, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight
